

AYER LIBRARY VOLUNTEERS

Ayer Library has had a wonderful group of people that have volunteered their services over the years. Their generosity is very appreciated by the Director, Board of Trustees, and staff.

Guidelines

Volunteers will help out at Ayer Library at the discretion of the Director. If at any time a volunteer's service is no longer required, the Director will call and notify the volunteer.

The Library Director or the Assistant Director will assign duties to volunteers in the Adult section of the Library. The Children's Librarian will assign duties to volunteers in the Children's Room.

Volunteers must adhere to and follow all Ayer Library policies as voted by the Library Trustees.

Volunteers must follow a regular schedule formulated by the Director that enhances the Library's service to the public.

Volunteers must wear I.D. tags that clearly designate them as "Volunteer".
