

REPOSITORY POLICY

Ayer Library may, at the discretion of the Library Director and the Board of Trustees, hold materials of community interest for public viewing and safe keeping. Studies, reports, findings, surveys, State and Federal tax forms and other miscellaneous items may be made available for public viewing. The Library is not responsible for explaining, disseminating, or publicizing events or materials, nor will the Library act as intermediary for any group or person depositing material at Ayer Library.